COOKIE POLICY

This Cookie Policy explains how we use cookies and similar technologies on our website. It should be read together with our Privacy Notice. As a UK-based business, we use cookies in line with the Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations 2003 (as amended), the UK GDPR, the Data Protection Act 2018 and applicable guidance issued by the Information Commissioner's Office. Where required, we will ask for your consent before using non-essential cookies or similar technologies. Where a limited exemption applies, we will still provide clear information and, where applicable, a simple way for you to object.

CATEGORIES OF COOKIES WE MAY USE

- STRICTLY NECESSARY COOKIES:

These cookies are essential for the operation, security and core functionality of the website, including network management, fraud prevention, page navigation, form submission, load balancing and remembering your cookie preferences. These cookies do not require consent where they are genuinely necessary to provide the service you request.

- ANALYTICS OR STATISTICAL COOKIES:

These help us understand how visitors use our website, for example by recognising and counting visits, understanding which pages are used most often and identifying ways to improve website performance and usability. Where these technologies are used only for limited statistical purposes permitted by law, we may rely on the relevant exemption and provide you with a clear opportunity to object. In all other cases, we will ask for your consent before using them.

- PREFERENCE OR APPEARANCE COOKIES:

These remember choices you make, such as display, accessibility or language preferences, so we can present the website in a way that better suits you. Where the law permits use of these technologies without consent, we will explain this clearly and provide a suitable means to object where required.

- MARKETING AND ADVERTISING COOKIES:

These cookies may be used to measure the effectiveness of campaigns, limit the number of times you see an advert, and help deliver advertising or content that is more relevant to your interests. These technologies may track browsing activity across websites, apps or devices. We will only use these cookies where you have given us your consent.

THIRD-PARTY TECHNOLOGIES AND CONSENT

Some cookies and similar technologies may be set by third-party providers whose services we use on our website, such as analytics, media, content delivery, website functionality or marketing providers. Where third-party technologies are not strictly necessary or otherwise exempt under applicable law, we will not use them unless you have consented. You can manage your preferences at any time through our cookie settings tool. If you withdraw consent, this will not affect the lawfulness of any use that took place before your withdrawal, but it will stop future use of the relevant non-essential technologies.

MANAGING COOKIES

Most web browsers allow you to control cookies through your browser settings. You may be able to block or delete cookies, or set alerts when cookies are used. Please note that disabling strictly necessary cookies may affect the performance or functionality of the website, and some services may not be available.

COOKIE DETAILS

A current list of the cookies and similar technologies used on this website, including their provider, purpose and duration, should be made available through the cookie settings tool or cookie table on the website.

CHANGES TO THIS COOKIE POLICY

We may update this Cookie Policy from time to time to reflect changes to our website, the technologies we use, legal or regulatory requirements, or our business operations. Any updates will be posted on this page with the revised effective date.

CONTACT US

If you have any questions about this Cookie Policy or our use of cookies and similar technologies, please contact ORA Holdings Limited, St Michael's Rectory, St Michael's Alley, London EC3V 9DS, or email info@ora.ltd.
